

Currency transfers you can count on

Move money abroad simply, swiftly, securely

Whether you're emigrating, buying property overseas, sending money to loved ones or transferring wages or a pension, the world of currency exchange can seem a little daunting.

Exchange rates are always moving, so it can be hard to budget effectively or find the best time to move your money.

In addition, some currency providers charge transfer fees and offer uncompetitive exchange rates, which can leave you feeling out of pocket.

Fortunately, it doesn't have to be this way. We're on a mission to take the hassle out of currency transfers and help you make your money go further.

Our services

Whatever your requirement we have a service to suit.

Rate alerts

With a rate alert, you can target a particular rate without committing to a transfer. If the market reaches your desired level, we'll let you know right away by text or email.

Limit order

Want a higher rate than the current one? Set your desired exchange rate and we'll automatically transfer your funds when the market reaches that level.

Spot contract

Make an on-the-spot transfer, securing the most competitive current exchange rate for an immediate transfer.

Forward contract

Secure an exchange rate for up to two years in advance. This means you can budget with confidence, knowing exactly how much you'll receive.*

Currency wallets

Buy currency when the rate is right and hold it in your digital currency wallet until you need it. You can have multiple wallets in multiple currencies.

Regular overseas payments

Automate your recurring transfers and know your money will be where you need it, when you need it.

*While fixing an exchange rate means you would miss out if the market strengthened, you would be protected from any negative movements.
